
First Vice-President of the Republic of Azerbaijan Mehriban Aliyeva has viewed conditions created at the secondary school No 113 named after Huseynbala Aghaverdiyev in Kurdakhani settlement, Baku, after major repair and reconstruction.

The First Vice-President first viewed a monument to martyrs of Kurdakhani settlement.

The school was commissioned in 1971. The building of the school was reconstructed on First Vice-President Mehriban Aliyeva's instructions this May.

Mehriban Aliyeva viewed classrooms, a computer room, library, auditorium and a gym. Green areas were laid out, landscaping and construction works were carried out in the yard of the 1,200-seat school.

Mehriban Aliyeva met with the school staff and wished them successes in the new academic year.
