

---

On February 26, the first lessons in educational institutions have been dedicated to Khojaly genocide.

In accordance with "Plan of Actions" of the Ministry of Education on holding 28th anniversary of Khojaly Genocide, memory of the victims of Khojaly have been commemorated in lessons conducted, and the students have been provided with detailed information on Khojaly genocide.

In accordance with the Action Plan, memorial nights, photo and drawing exhibitions devoted to the Khojaly genocide, meetings with witnesses have been organized, documentary and feature films devoted to the Khojaly genocide have been demonstrated in the educational institutions.

It should be noted that teachers and students of the educational institutions also visit the monument "Mother's Shout" in memory of the victims of Khojaly genocide.