

---

On November 2, the Armenian Armed Forces fired Mahrizli village of Aghdam region. As a result, a secondary school named after Rahib Mammadov in Mahrizli village was severely damaged, and one building of the school is completely destroyed and became unusable.

It should be noted that, 292 students study in secondary school of Mahrizli village, 35 teachers work at school.

Up to now, 50 schools were damaged as a result of the enemy aggression.