The seminar was held within the School Project on application of resources and energy (SPARE) of thof the Norwegian Society for the Conservation of Nature. The national coordinator of SPARE in Azerbaijan, Naile Ismayilova, project coordinator on the program's application, Mirabbas Mammadov, director tof the educational and extra school institutions department of the Ministry of Education, Agababa Ibrahimov, director of Ecological Eyceum "Araz", Sudabekhanim Mikayilova, geography teacher of school. No: 4284, Sevinj Abbasova, biology teacher of school. No: 4284, Sevinj Abbasova, biology teacher of school No: 204, Almaz Hasret, and physics teacher of the lyceum of "Zekalar" Gulchin Bakhshiyev took part in the seminar.

At the first day of the seminar, Nailes Ismayilova, national coordinator of ISPARE in Azerbaijan, made a presentation on the theme of "Pedagogical innovations and unity of applied issues" devoted to the the measures implemented in the country in the relevant field. At the session of the seminar that deddedicated to the theme of "Pedagogical innovations the best examples and sharing experience" teach teachers from Azerbaijan have presented lessons examples based for different pedagogical approaches.

Azerbaijan has joined to the project since 2003. Currently, more than 200 schools of the country arare working with the SPARE program. The main goal of the program is to educate pupils how to use energy and resources efficiently. Active SPARE schools conduct education on sustainable use of energy, and implement practical measures on energy efficiency.