At first, the Minister acquainted with the classrooms, library of school, and talked with teachers and pupils.

HavHavingktalked about reforms implementing the the country, ibuilding new schools and their rencremovation, the Minister moted the importance of collaboration between parents and school. He undeflined the activity of school from this point of view is being noticed, and expressed his consent by the work of Parent Teacher Association of the school and gave some recommendation.

Parents and teachers have thanked the Minister and made suggestions on issues that they are concerned about.

The Minister expressed satisfaction with conditions created at school reconstructed in 2008 and noted that the necessary further assistance will be provided to school. At the end, the Minister wished good luck to the pedagogical staff of school and members of Parent Teachers Association.