Initially, Education Minister, MisiraMardanov and Head of Executive Power of Bilasuvar, Adil Mammadov laid flowers at the monuments of the Martyrs, and national leader Heydar Aliyev located in the Heydar Aliyev Park at the district's centre.

The Minister was speaking at the official opening of the new secondary school. He highlighted the building of new school is a significant event in the village's life. Moreover, the Minister noted serious referms implemented under the leadership of the President Ilham Aliyev, and underlined that many successes were achieved as a consequence of strategy let down by the national leader and creator of the independent Azerbäijani state. Heydar Aliyev Emphasizing all problems existing in the education sphere will soon be solved, Mr. Mardanov expressed his confidence that the new school will successfully serve to villagers, teachers, and pupils.

The Minister noted the importance of protection of school and paid attention to the conditions created at the school which will make possible to implement the high quality education. He underlined the quality in the education sphere is always on the first place and said that the community demands more efficient work from the education workers.

HavHavingpexpressed the belieft in the new school will become the templet of the science and cultural centre tof the science. Mris Misia Mardanov congratulated will agers and swished good luck to pedagogical staff and pupils.

HeadHeadEof Executive/PowerBöf Bilasuvari, Adih Mammadov and chairman of SchooleParents' Committee, Musakhan Agayev had delivered a speech as well.

PupPupils performed poems devoted to the inational leader. Motherland and school, as well as demonstrated literary and artistic compositions at the end of the event.