A trip for Azerbaijani graduates of foreign universities to liberated (from Armenian occupation) Aghdam district has been organized on July 31.

Some 71 people took part in the trip. The trip was organized with the support of the Ministry of Education for a group of graduates who were trained in a number of prestigious universities in the world within the 'State program for training Azerbaijani youth abroad for 2007-2015' and 'Intergovernmental scholarship programs'.

These are graduates of about 60 prestigious universities in 17 countries (the US, Germany, Australia, the UK, Belgium, Czech Republic, China, Sweden, Switzerland, Italy, Canada, Lithuania, Hungary, Netherlands, Poland, Russia, Turkey). Currently, they work in public and private organizations in Azerbaijan in leading and managerial positions.

The participants of the trip visited the Panakh-Ali-Khan Palace, the Imarat stadium, the Juma Mosque and the Giyasli Mosque in Aghdam region, as well as the Aghdam State Drama Theater.

In front of the Azerbaijan State Drama Theatre, Azerbaijani graduates performed samples of national folklore such as "Sari gelin", "Heyratiz Azerbaijan", "Rast fragment Niyazi", as well as "Vivaldi-summer". In addition, Azerbaijani graduates got acquainted themselves with Aghdam's General Plan during the visit.

In order to communicate to the international community the significance of Karabakh for Azerbaijan and the historical and rich cultural heritage of the region, "Karabakh is Azerbaijan" - a special issue of the "Nargis" magazine devoted to Karabakh culture and history was presented to Azerbaijani graduates.

An artwork created by Gulshan Bakhshaliyeva, a student of the Sumgait Child and Youth Development Centre No 1, containing special elements of the 44-day Patriotic War, was presented to Emin Huseynov, Special Representative of the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan, to be viewed by local and foreign nationals.

The impressions of Azerbaijani graduates of their visit to the liberated Azerbaijani lands and victory in the 44-Day Patriotic War were heard.

At the end of the visit, a memorial picture was taken.

It should be noted that during the 44-day Patriotic War, young people educated abroad at the expense of the state contributed to the provision of health services to our servicemen affected by the war, as well as to the delivery of the truthful voice of our country to the world community on social media accounts, public and diplomatic platforms.
