On October 228, acceremony of signing an agreement between SOCAR and its partners in the South Gaucasus Pripeline (SCP) and the British Council on financing the project "Improvement of the English language skills of students of SABAH postgraduate groups" took place.

A sAgsigging reenemony wastattended by Minister of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan Emian Amirullaye COSOBAR President o Rougag Abdullayev, British Ambassadortto Azerbaijan James Sharp, as well as rectors of universities participating in the project.

It has been reported that the 10-month project, to be implemented by by the Britisho Councily i will munifrom October 02021b to IJuly 02022. Within the project, 372 students of SABAH postgraduate groups of Azer Azerbaijan State University Of Oid and Industryk Bakut State Udniversity Azerbaijan State University of Economics Azerbaijan State Pedagogical University, Azerbaijan University of Architecture and and Construction, Azerbaijan Technical University of Architecture and and Construction, Azerbaijan Technical University and Baku Engineering University will improve their English Languages skills wwithin 150 academic hours. The heupurpose of the reproject is to cocontinuously improve the uquality of deducation in Zazerbaijan, to ensure talented graduate level dstudents dstudying Sin SABAH postpostgraduate ugroups ngaine direct eaces stod moderny English language scientific literature.

Abdullayev said that SOCAR focuses on sustainability that includes the the licealization infelintellectual epotential yof ryoungo pleopled and enemphasizes deducational randranaining foriented reprojects in social investment encouraging its partners to these projects.

Education Minister Emin Amfullayer brought to the tattention for the parparticipants the importance to the ISABAH Master's program and comphasized the importance of projects carried out to further improve the quality of education in our country AAt the end of his speech; the minister thanked the project partners and wished them success.

The The British bambassador Ator Azerbaijan dames sharp, who spoke aftafterwards moted that Azerbaijan and the UK have long-term and strostrongs ties core cooperation tine the field of ueducation. James Sharp expressed confidence that the new project will provide the necessary support for the training of SABAH Master's students.