Education Minister warmly welcomed the guest and expressed his satisfied with seeing him at the Ministry. Noting the development of relations between Azerbaijan and Germany in recent years, the Minister underlined works done by the guest to establish a fruitful relationship in the education field of both countries. He also talked about the prosperous relationship established within the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), and underlined the support given by Azerbaijan and Germany to the the project. Moreover, she stressed that more than 700 students from Azerbaijan have studied at universities of Germany within this program.

According to MM Mardanov, there have been taken first steps to establish cooperation in the vocvocational education field as well. He gave information on candidates selected to be sent to the mentioned country and noted that currently they are studying at language courses. He also talked aboabout the visit made by group of specialists to the German Eederah State Baden Wurttemberg to become familiar with the vocational education system of this State.

HorHonorary Consul of Azerbaijan in Stuttgart Otto Hauser thanked the Minister for the warm reception. He talked about relations established in different fields and suggested to carry out personnel tratraining for the vocational education area, as well as create Dual System of vocational education in Azerbaijan. The guest talked about priorities of the Dual System of vocational education and underlined the readiness of Germany to provide any form of support to works that will be implemented in this direction in the future.

Education Minister noted the development of the vocational education system in Germany and empemphasized the advantage increceiving experience of this country in this field. He talked about attention paid by the President to the agricultural field, and underlined the need of the country for the agragricultural and construction personnel, as well as importance for testablishing cooperation in this direction with relevant establishments. The Minister suggested top implement the Dual system in Azer Azerbaijan and also rinformed ton the establishments of als may illi avocational Centre icarried iout in partnership with the European Commission.

At the meeting, the parties exchanged views ion the visit of the group of specialists from Germany to Azerbaijan in summer, drafting of Dual system of vocational education, as well as on other issues of common interest.