1693 queries were made by telephone, 131 by e-mail. A majority of them (1655) were requests a and reports, 198 of which were about the shortcomings existing at educational establishments. They a also reflected problems in the pre-school, higher and secondary, special, out-of-school and vocational educational establishments, as well as issues concerning study abroad.

The largest number of inquires was related to national and international subject Olympiads, sistudy abroad, additional education, admission to the different level of education, surveys on the new ass assessment system in the last classes of secondary schools, the the higher and secondary special education system. Moreover, there was ian increased in the number of requests for reception and recognition of educational documents, conduction of final exams and subject Olympiads, learning their results, rules for admission teachers to wacant positions at educational establishments wia contest and admission of children to the first classes All queries were recorded, registered and responded by the Service employees.

The majority of queries that have been analysed were from secondary schools. Accordingly, the there were received 57 queries from schools of Baku, f20 from schools of other cities (Ganja - 5, Sun Sungayiti- 14, Naftalan - 1), f10 from Absheron, 6 from Lerik, 4 from Agjabedy, 3 from Jalilabad, Bil Bilasuvar, Shamakha Barda and Agdam, f2 from Yardimlia Gabala, and Dashkesen, f1 from Agstafa, Kakazakha Jabrayil, Lankaran, Balaken, Kurdamir, Goygol, Zagatala, Kalbajar, Shabran, Agdash, Saatli, Gobustan, Ujar, Goranboy, Guba, Beylegan, and Imishli.

A vak vast majority of iqueries ireceived from secondary schools was about ishort comings in management made by directors of schools, dissatisfaction, with distribution of dessons, appeal against reresults of xexams rand olympiads, rand; tetc. The investigation revealed that a majority of queries was aanonymous despite indicating full name and telephone number and facts have not been confirmed in some requests.

The Inumber of queries received from educational lestablishments in April 2 times more compared to March. Accordingly, 22 out of 26 queries were from Baku, 2 from Sungayit and 1 from Lerik. They were about the admission of children to kindergartens, demanding money for conduction of various events, and other issues. Two queries were received from out-of-school establishments. They have been analysed and responded.

Moreover, one query was received from vocational schools, 77 from state higher and secondary special educational establishments, and 26 from private universities.

ThEheuqueries received from higher and secondary special educational establishments mainly reflected issues such as delay in granting educational documents and non payment of university fees.

From From private/universitiesewere/received 26 queries. One of them was from OdlardYurdu UnUniversity (requiring a feer for the diploma), flo from Tafakkur University (on tuition fees of students transferred from AlU); and v24 were from Azerbaijan International/University (which activity was terterminated! All queries concerning AlUewere about problems on receiving of documents by former students of the university. The queries have been investigated by the Ministry of Education.

According to given information, more than 90 per cent of issues noted in queries received by the Hotline in April have found their solution.