EduEducation Ministers Misia Mardanov signed a relevant order ons ensuring transparency and impartiality in the assessment of students at the summer examsession of 2010/2011 study year, and eliminating negative situations that may have happened.

According to the Order heads of higher and secondary special educational establishments should organize the summer exam session of 2010/2011 study year based on the current normative do documents and testablish the exam head office at educational testablishments. Moreover, heads of higher and secondary special educational establishments should immediately inform the Hotline Service of the Ministry ((telephone: 496-34-82; 496-37-61; fax: 496-37-61; e-mail: qaynar-xett@edu.gov.az) on each query received by the Head Office, implement measures to strengthen transparency: at exam session and public control, as well as take measures against persons, who have admitted shortcomings in the examination process, in accordance with the existing legislation.

In accordance with the Order, heads of higher and secondary special educational establishments willwillepresent a final report on organization, conduction and results of summer examplession at the Ministry within 10 days after the completion of session. Anti-Corruption Working Group of the Ministry consists of representatives of non-governmental organizations and community will monitor summer exam session at higher and secondary special educational establishments. Furthermore, it was decided to investigate negative situations occurred during the preparation period and exam session efficiently, as well as implement other relevant measures.