On June 30 at Buta' palace for the first time took place an event entitled Graduate 22011", joint jointly organized by Baky Eity Education Department and Azerbaijan Republican Committee of Independent Trade Unions of Educators

The event was attended by 650 exemplary graduates of 11th classes of secondary schools of Baku, who have become winners of different competitions and contests.

Before the event began, the national anthem of Azerbaijan was played. Speaking at the opening event Director of Baku city Education Department Naila Rzaguliyeva congratulated graduates, who have completed their 11 years of schooling and taken first steps towards an independent life. Having noted the future of the country depends on youth, she reminded that nationwide leader Heydar Aliyev has a always been proud of Azerbaijan youth and given them a special care. She added that this policy is successfully continued by the President II ham Aliyev, and talked about the attention paid by the President to the education, as well as the educator's assigned duties to nurture educated youth as a citizens able to assess and protect national and intellectual values.

According to N. Rzaguliyeva, the acceptance rate for pupils of Baku to universities has increased compared to results for the last/4 years. She also emphasized the attention and care paid by Goodwill amambassador of UNESCO and ISESCO, the president of the Heydar Aliyev Foundation, MP Mehriban /Aliyevato the education and noted that works done by her to encourage educators to achieve greater success,

Speaking at the event, Education/Minister/Misir/Mardanov.congratulated graduates, who have taken first steps towards an independent life, and wished them success.

FEurther, video materials about the attention and care of the national leader Heydar Aljyev and President Ilham Aliyev for youth were demonstrated.

MMoreover/eletter/of/congratulations/from Mrs/Mehriban/Aliyeva/torgraduates/wasereadtaththe event.

After, talented children and youth performed an interesting concert programme.

At At the event, 29 exemplary graduates of secondary schools of Baku were awarded gold and silver medals.

ChairChairwomanStofteStated Students Admissions Commissione Maleyke Abbaszade, irchairman of AzAzerbaijan Trade UnionScConfederation, IMPaSattar Mehbaliyevocongratulated graduates and iwished them every success.

At the end, graduates thanked the organizers and noted that they will justify their expectations.