

---

Speaking at the opening of the meeting, Education Minister Misir Mardanov highlighted the particular meaning of research topics that will be carried out by the Institute for Educational Problems. Noting the heads of selected research topics are taken part in the meeting, the Minister underlined the appropriateness to hear their opinions on research fields. The Minister said that the topics discussed in the previous meeting were reviewed, and asked to speak Director of Institute for Educational Problem Abdulla Mehrabov and give more information on these issues.

A, Mehrabov noted that, the relevant improvement works on research topics have been done and defined 18 topics. These topics comprise the issues concerning the results for subject curriculum apply, comparative analysis of lessons led by one and/or many teachers on subjects at these classes, the organization of work on the preparation of five-year-old children for school, scientific basis for use of new pedagogical technologies and ICT, as well as its impact on the quality of learning, assessment of pupil's achievement in the general education, improvement of assessment standards, and analysis of assessment methods, as well as other fields of the education. Moreover, he gave information on issues that will be reflected on research topics and familiarized participants with their main point.

Next, Director of Department for curriculum for primary education of Curriculum Centre of Institute for Educational Problems Bibikhanim Ibadova and Director of Department for content and methods of evaluation of Centre for Applied Research, Monitoring and Evaluation Elkhon Baylarov gave information on topics headed by them and talked on expected results. Moreover, they responded to questions taken from attendees.

Education Minister gave advice and instructions on topics that will be implemented at the Institute for Educational Problems, and noted the appropriateness to make some changes in the titles of these topics and approve after discussing them with relevant departments of the Ministry.

Moreover, the Minister touched upon issue on stimulating these researches from different sources,

At the meeting, there have been heard some proposals concerning the research topics and noted the importance of considering all of them.