

---

Event attendees became acquainted with materials, photographs and exhibits showing various periods of life and statehood activity of the national leader. Next, there was demonstrated a film devoted to the reforms implemented in the education field of the country.

Rector of the Institute Asef Zamanov gave detailed information to event attendees on the development path of this education institution and its international relations. Noting a number of prestigious international scientific conferences were held at the Institute over the last 4 years, the Rector underlined the main goal is to make a worthy contribution to the educational reforms implemented in the country.

Next, the Memorandum of understanding was signed between British Council and Baku Skill improvement and Retraining Institute of Pedagogical Cadres.

Speaking at the ceremony Education Minister Misir Mardanov underlined the works implemented to turn Baku Skill improvement and Retraining Institute of Pedagogical Cadres into the high-quality scientific and education centre will be continued. He noted textbooks, learning materials and science articles prepared in the Institute indicate the staff potential of this education establishment.

Noting the British Council has established a close link with the Ministry of Education, Mr. Mardanov expressed his gratitude to the management of the Council for jointly implemented projects. He stressed the Memorandum of understanding signed between British Council and Baku Skill improvement and Retraining Institute of Pedagogical Cadres is very important in terms of provision the learning of English language and development of Institute. Bakhtiyar Aliyev, member of Milli Majlis, Paul Clementson country director of British Council to Azerbaijan and others have talked about the role of Baku Skill improvement and Retraining Institute of Pedagogical Cadres in training specialists for different education institutions, particularly in preparing English language personnel.

At the end, the event attendees have become acquainted with scientific papers, monographs, textbooks, methodical aids and scientific articles of the institute personnel.