The contest will be organized according to the Order 1601 of the Minister of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan Misir Mardanov of 18 April 2012. The contest aims to improve the effectiveness of measures taken to study the works of Azeri composers written on the theme of freedom and heroism, and support the development of creative abilities of talented children.

The contest will be held in three nominations (performance on folk musical instruments, song and poem) and over four rounds (school, district (city), zonal and republican).

Republican qualifying round of the contest and winners' final concert will be held in Baku in May 2012.

The winners will be awarded diplomas and prizes of the Ministry of Education.
