The order states that national leader Heydar Aliyev is a greatest figure, who had made great contributions to the development of Azerbaijan in the 20th century. His life was a vivid symbol of the endless devotion and love for his Motherland and nation.

The pride of Azerbaijan, powerful statesman and staunch politician Heydar Aliyev had become the nationwide leader of Azerbaijani people due to his great work, and he will remain in the memory and heart of people as a leader with a steel will, fame and prestige that knew no boundaries. Heydar Aliyev had become an exemplary individual for generations. His life full of fights and victories is a real school for people, especially for youngsters.

There have been filmed numerous movies and chronicles devoted to the activity of Heydar Aliyev, when he was the leader of the Azerbaijan SSR, and when he was promoted to a position on the Politburo. After our country gained independence, different TV channels, as well as famous cinematic figures started to pay attention to this important fact more seriously, and as a result, there were made documentary films about the hitherto unknown historical facts of activities of nationwide leader. The role of famous film director Vagif Mustafayev in creating and presenting these films to the public should be especially praised.

The order states that films about Heydar Aliyev have a great historical value and could play an important role in informing schoolchildren about the meaningful life of national leader, as well as about great contributions made by him not only to Azerbaijan but also to the former Soviet Union countries.

Heads of relevant departments and structures of the Ministry of Education were instructed to prepare proposals and recommendations on the organization of the work regarding the demonstration of documentary films of Vagif Mustafayev about Heydar Aliyev, which were considered as important education resources, at secondary schools within 1 week.

According to the order, the first lessons at secondary schools on the 10th of May each year shall be devoted to the life and activity of national leader Heydar Aliyev. Heydar Aliyev Lecture Hall that will be operated throughout the academic year shall be created at all secondary schools, lyceums and gymnasiums, and events devoted to the commentary of his thoughts on the Azeri language, literature and history, economy, culture, art, national and spiritual values shall be organized by participation of famous scientists and experts. Moreover, a separate section that will contain books devoted to the national leader Heydar Aliyev shall be established at school libraries. Pupils shall be informed on their contents and about the opinions of famous people on Great Leader. What is more, the presentation contest "What I know about great leader Heydar Aliyev" and other events shall be conducted among pupils.
