The meeting was devoted to the results of accreditation of Music College of Azerbaijan National CcConservatory, Shirvan State College of Economics and Humanities and Baku State College of Social Economics.

Chain of Accreditation Commission for Music College of Azerbaijan National Conservatory Hajar BalBabayeva gave detailed information on the organization of teaching process at college noting the quiquality of expert training were also studied. She acquainted the meeting attendees with results of compliance of the activity log college with its status rand informed about conclusion made by Accreditation Commission on some criteria, including the personnel training.

Chair of Accreditation Commission for Shirvan State College of Economics and Humanities Farrukh Mammadov presented the figures on learning conditions of the school, and its material and technical basis and teaching staff. He brought to the attention of participants proposals and recommendations made by Commission for the improvement of college activity.

Chehair of Accreditation Commission for Baku State College of Social Economics Latif Ismayilov acquainted attendees with general activity of the college, its relevant figures and decision made by the Commission.

QueQuestions taken from attendees regarding the results of accreditation were answered, and number of opinions and suggestions were voiced.

EcEducation Minister Misir Mardanov expressed his views on issues regarding the most effective organization of accreditation process at secondary special schools.

At At the end the activity of Music College of Azerbaijan National Conservatory was assessed as "good" and other two education institutions as "satisfactory", and was made a decision on accreditation of their relevant specialties.