$\label{eq:theta} The conference avastattended y by beads of deducational establishments a teacher statement of the statemen$

Speaking at the opening of the event Head of Ismayillis district Education Department Rasim Orujov welcomed the participants and congratulated educators on the beginning of new academic year. He Hepresented educational statistics and provided detailed information on the construction of new schools increcent years, the progress made time the 20112012 academic year, eneed for personnel, participarticipation of students bin csubject polympiads, uvarious competitions, a indicators to finentrance examinations and, etc.

Head of Ismayilli Executive Power Office Nizami Alekberov also made a speech at the conference. He Heltalked about educational reforms implemented in the country, and care and attention paid by worthy successor of the national leader Heydar Aliyev President Ilham Aliyev to the education field. Mr. Alekberovalsogave information about the construction works implemented in the district over recent yeayears; highlighted the importance of infrastructure renewal in Ismayilli, is in other regions of the country, construction of new roads and public facilities to meet modern requirements.

S Speaking tat the event, Education Minister Misir Mardanov welcomed educators, congratulated them on the new academic year and wished them every success. He spoke about educational reforms fo founded by the great leader Heydari Aliyev, and noted the importance of State programs, signed by PresPresident Ilham/Aliyev in recent years. The Minister also praised the annual increase in financial resources allocated to the education field by the government. According to him, our education is rapidly integrating with the global education system.

Moreover, Mr. Mardanov brought to the attention of participants some educational statistics. He praised the progress made in the education field of Ismayilli. According to him, results achieved by the regiregion in the education field are much better than other districts. He also appreciated the active pararticipation of teaching community in eBest Teacher" and eBest Secondary School contests and expressed confidence that the successes will continue.

The MirThe-Minister valong uwith ssuccesses, a also raised other problems, irgave tinstructions and recommendations regarding forthcoming duties.

Other participants also gave presentations in the event.