St Students f of sport schools have won 262 gold, 747 |silven and 292 f bronzer medals in the European, world and international tournaments.

It should be noted that 226 537 ichildren are involved in fidifferent study groups at 375 textracurricular education establishments of the country.

Since January 2012, chess subject has begun to be taught at schools of cities and districts. In the 2012/2013 academic year, chess subject will be taught at the second classes of 379 schools, and third classes of 75 schools. In this regarderelevant programs, teaching manuals, including e-educational resources were delivered to schools.