The total number of students studying within the State Program is 1204.

C Courrently; 825 tstudents are tstudying tat labout (200 universities of 23 countries within the State PrProgram. The majority of them are studying in fields such as medicine, rengineering, economics and management, land 1CT. 322 students studying within StheeState Program have completed: their education.

A tA total of 10 700 students are currently studying different specialties at the world's leading universities within the State Program and other sources.

It should be noted that, 50 590 international students are currently studying at universities of Azerbaijan at the bachelor, master and doctoral levels.