

---

The meeting was devoted to the accreditation results of National Aviation Academy, Academy of Labour and Social Relations and Baku Girls University.

Speaking at the opening of the event Education Minister Misir Mardanov noted the importance of universities accreditation and voiced his opinions regarding the relevant issues.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on National Aviation Academy Subhan Namazov gave detailed information on the results of accreditation. According to him, the commission has analyzed the situation regarding the organization of teaching process on relevant specialties. He touched upon the activity of education institution, its material and technical base and provision of graduates with job opportunities, as well as voiced some suggestions and recommendations offered by the Commission.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on Academy of Labour and Social Relations Ilham Aslanzade talked about specialist training conditions at the education institution, the content of faculty staff, etc. He also touched on the situation regarding the analysis of activity of the Academy on different directions, its material and technical base, use of modern technology in the teaching process, etc.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on Baku Girls University Aydin Mirzamammadov gave detailed information on the activity of the university. He talked about works done to improve the quality of education at university, content of faculty staff, results of students knowledge assessment and conclusion reached by the Commission.

Next, the questions taken from the members of the Council were answered, and made suggestions and recommendations.

The activity of the National Aviation Academy was assessed as satisfactory, activities of the Academy of Labour and Social Relations and Baku Girls University as unsatisfactory at the meeting of the Accreditation Council.