

---

Participants of the meeting heard the annual report of PTA and exchanged views on works implemented in the relevant field.

Education Minister Misir Mardanov talked about the activity of PTA and works implemented by the Association regarding the development of parent-school relationships. He highly praised the events organized by the PTA, which plays an important role in creating effective communication environment between parents and teachers. According to him, important duties, such as building a civil society, improve the quality of education, raise the prestige of schools and the teaching profession laid upon Parent Teacher Associations.

Executive director of Azerbaijan National Parent Teacher Association Tarana Sharifova thanked the Minister for the meeting and provided support. Noting the number of PTA members has increased over recent years T. Sharifova talked about realized projects and organized activities. Furthermore, she underlined the importance of developing mechanisms to improve PTA's activity and spoke about measures taken in this direction at schools. She also talked about problems and difficulties facing by the PTA, and put forward her ideas on what is needed to be done.

The meeting was attended by members of Azerbaijan National Parents Teachers Association, including director of school no.46 of Baku Sevinj Budagova, director of educational complex 132-134 Sara Khanlarova, director of XXI century International Education and Innovation Centre Vafa Mammadova, heads of departments of the Ministry Farzali Gadirov, Aydin Ahmadov, Shahrza Aliyev, and etc. Speaking at the meeting they put forward proposals regarding the establishment of effective relationships between teachers and parents, raising the prestige of schools and the teaching profession. Moreover, they talked about the appropriateness of creating a newspaper of the Association, strengthening of cooperation between parents, teachers and schools, etc.

Moreover, there were underlined the importance of effective organization of PTA's activity and determination of steps that should be taken in this direction. Education Minister Misir Mardanov highly praised the expansion of Association activity, and underlined the need to strengthen the promotion of done works. At the end of his speech the Minister gave his relevant recommendations and underlined the needed support will be provided to the works implemented by the Association.