

---

On January 17, the guests visited the Alley of Honor to pay tribute to the national leader Heydar Aliyev and permanent ophthalmologist Zarifa Aliyeva, also visited the Alley of Martyrs and Turkish Martyrs' Memorial.

Next, the guests had a meeting at Baku State University. Speaking at the opening of the meeting, rector of Baku State University Abel Maharramov underlined the fraternal relations between Azerbaijan and Turkey, as well as the existing cooperation between universities of the two countries.

Turkey's Higher Education Council (YOK) Chairman Gokhan Cetinsaya welcomed the attendees and expressed his gratification for visiting Azerbaijan. He talked about the effective relationship in the education field of the two countries and stressed the need to improve the cooperation.

Next, Deputy Education Minister Gulu Novruzov talked about the development of relationships between Azerbaijan and Turkey noting the current visit will make an important contribution to the expansion of educational ties. According to him, Azerbaijan has developed a very close partnership with Turkey in fields, such as student exchange and scientific cooperation.

At the meeting, a memorandum of understanding was signed between Baku State University and Anadolu and Recep Tayyip Erdogan universities. It should be noted that the memorandum includes the exchange of students, researchers and doctoral candidates, mutual assistance for teaching staff of universities to improve their skills in the education field, organization of joint symposiums, seminars and conferences, joint participation of the parties in projects and programs of mutual interest.