

---

The international conference is attended by 1400 education experts, Ministers of Education and representatives of educational management organizations from more than 70 countries.

The international conference on Going Global in Higher Education 2013 will take place over 3 days.