At the meeting, the sides discussed issues related to the expansion of British Council's activity in /Azerbaijan, use of ICT in education, distance learning, English language teaching, retraining of English language teachers, and etc.

BritisBritishnCouncil operates in emore than 100 countries worldwide. The organization closely cooperates with Azerbaijan and supports the development of international relations between different levels of education of the country, as well as English language teaching.