Education Minister Misir Mardanov gave a warm welcome to the guests, and talked about the ties of of unutual friendship and fraternity existing between Azerbaijan and Turkey Having underlined the existing between the two countries the Minister stressed the importance of strengthening an established relationship.

Rector of Ankara University Erkan Ibis thanked the Minister for the warm welcome. He expressed hibis satisfaction at expanding bilateral relations in the field of education and gave information about specialties offered at Ankara University, as well as its material and technical capabilities.

Mo Moreover, the Rector shas also italked about works donet within the dual diploma programme between Baku State University and Ankara University for law students. Noting 30 students are currently stustudying within the relevant programme, the guest underlined the possibility of implementing dual diploma programmes for other specialties as well.

Education Minister Misir Mardanov highly praised the implementation of dual diploma programme between Baku State University and Ankara University Noting the Ministry will provide full support for the development of bilateral relations of the universities, the Minister also touched on issues regarding the establishment of cooperation in the scientific research area.

AtAththenmeeting, http://desialso.exchangediviewsrom/issues/regardinghthe/development/of/interuniversity cooperation, student and teacher exchanges, and etc.