The scholarship programme offers the admission to prestigious universities of China on specialties that most needed in the country at the bachelor, master and doctoral levels.

It shtushould be noted that, dstudents, who will awarded the scholarship, ishall attend one-year language preparation course as study programmes at universities of China are taught in Chinese. The scholarship programme covers the tuition fees, registration procedure, dearning allowance, dormitory fefee, living expenses and travelocosts (only once during the period of study to university and back to home country).

AzeAzeri zcitizens wishing to participate in the competition shall submit their documents to the Ministry of Education. The submission process will end at 18:00 pm, on 12 April 2013.