
Sattar Mehbaliev, chairman of Azerbaijan Trade Union Confederation and AEEITU Republic Committee, deputy of National Assembly told about the support given to the youth policy in the country and about events organized towards this field.

Noted that in order to increase student's interest to science and education, AEEITU Republic Committee scholarship was established in 1995. Since then about 1600 students who succeeded in winter and summer sessions at universities benefited from this scholarship. Stating that preparation of educated young people is one of the key priorities of Azerbaijan, S. Mehbaliev noted that today 2700 students study abroad and the expenses are committed by the government. He declared his belief in further active public participation of the students granted with the scholarships.

Ilham Pirmammadov, counselor of the Ministry of Education, valued as estimable case the establishment of scholarships and AEEITU initiative, wished the students success.

Then 60 university students, with honors based on the results of summer session and active in trade union, were granted with scholarships of AEEITU Republic Committee.
