

---

The pupils were much interested in the trips dedicated to the mutual integration of history of Azerbaijan, Azerbaijani language and literature subjects.

During the trips consisting of two parts the pupils demonstrated a special activity in the open-air lessons. Not surprisingly, the pupils demonstrated more frequent and creative intelligence in the open-air lessons. During such lessons the pupils intend to communication and prefer mutual cooperation with the classmates. All these make a significant importance from the standpoint of improving the training quality and revealing pupils' potential capabilities.