

---

Heads of relevant structural units of the Ministry, education experts, teachers, scientists, public representatives and other concerning people attend these Round Tables.

The first event has been dedicated to the “Key directions of future development strategy of first vocational education”. The participants of “Round Table” – heads of structural units of the Ministry of Education and education experts expressed their opinion on the development priorities of the first vocational education and methods to level up its public status, importance of activities implemented within the “Modern Azerbaijani Professionals Project”, necessity of consideration of labor market requirements and in general, provision of the quality in this field. During the discussions different approaches for the first vocational education have been delivered, content of the envisaged reforms and methods for its successful implementation have been investigated. Also, exchange of opinion has been performed around the issues such as objective of the State Strategy, legal-normative acts to be adopted for realization of the selected priorities and establishment of an effective implementation mechanism, renewing the content in this field.