Du During 2018-the Ministry of Education carried out several reform-oriented events and made sisjonificant steps lahead regarding transparency provision in education system, application of modern management model, quality assurance, and capacity building from the capability and competence standpoint.

One of the steps was enabling more than 90 thousand graduates from XI class to get attestation. According to the President's instruction, proposal of the Ministry of Education on awarding attestations to to all pupils of secondary schools was raised up to the Government level and legislation accordance with the Decision of the Gabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Azerbaijan dated on May 23, 2013.

Hundreds of school graduates who got 2 in final exams achieved successful results in entrance exams this year and were accepted to high and secondary special education establishments.

Along with high and secondary special schools, considering those persons' chance to be accepted to first vocational special education establishments, we'll see that social activities of those young have been enhanced enough.

One of the updates in 2013 education environment of the country was the adoption of new regulations on untimely acceptance of special talented children under 6 years-old to school. As a result of activity of the committees establishment in accordance with the new regulations, 8 846 children have been untimely accepted to school.

This year there has been agility in teachers' centralized employment process to general education an and first vocational special education establishments. Previous years just test exams for teachers' employment took 6.7 weeks, this year the process took totally 13 days. Note that this year 3286 vacancies have been advertised. There were 18782 applicants. As per final results of competition for teachers' employment, 1281 persons were employed in general. Unlike previous years although the number of vacancies for teachers' employment increased in the current year, admission scores were not decreased; teachers' professional competencies were a must in the competition.

AddiAdditionally, the Ministry of Education madel additional inclusions to avacancies at general education schools in November Persons who achieved admission scores in current year employment concompetition, tbut not accepted were rearticipating in additional lindusion 5165 persons out of 51/257 applicants in this stage were employed.

44022150 copies of textbooks and textbook sets were published and distributed in 146 items for classes I/III/IV/V/VI/VIII/IX and X for 2013-2014 academic/years. For the first time, the textbooks for class IVI were compiled based on curriculum. Other textbooks were published by making editions on previous publications

UnUnlike previous years, the Ministry of Education made adecision on use of general education school textbooks in the upcoming years with a year testing period. This approach will help to improve the textbook quality, decrease textbook shortage, and actively include the author potential in textbook compilation. As the first step towards this field, the annual preparation of textbooks for two classes was started. The preparation process of new textbook sets for classes Whand Will was started based on 20201492015 academic years. Textbook sets for class Will will be published until the beginning of next academic year and distributed to general education schools. It's planned to publish the textbooks for classes. Will in limited number, test in pilot schools a year and distribute to all schools afterwards. This mechanism is planned to be continued in the upcoming years as well-the order to improve the qualification of bextbook authors and promote the ispecialists of authorship claims in textbook compilation, training courses are planned.

One for this year's successes was the selection process of deserving candidates for the fast the Program for study of Azerbaijani, youth abroad for 2007-2015." For the first time during 6, years of the program implementation, the candidates were interviewed completely transparent in study languages by the committees in which members of high education establishments, ministries, non-government organizations included and unbiased selection was made. In comparison with the previous years this year more number of students - 787 entitled to study abroad.

Also, this year the Ministry of Education started the implementation of a social Modern Azerbaijan ProProfessionals Project directed towards the development of infrastructure of first vocational special education establishments and based on state-business partnership. The Project laims to enhance the scope of vocational education system and improve the quality of capacity preparation process. Within this Project the partnerships were made with different state and private, as well as foreign partners and modermodern resource centers were lestablished within several first wocational special education establishments.

Feleding has started to be centrally organized at boarding schools, dyceums and, gymnasiums subordinated to the Ministry of Education Appropriate dietary menus have been prepared for special bobarding schools (children with intellectual and physical disabilities, tuberculosis, and rheumatism disclisease) subordinated to the Ministry. Menus have been modified individually innompliance with no nosological form, progress, degree, remission or relapse periods of diseases. Additionally, tat the mentioned educational centers the feeding is organized considering the age-groups, characteristics of intellectual and physical load of children and teenagers, course and work routines. Central organization of of feeding aims to have control overlifollowing the international and mational standards, sanitary—epidemiologic requirements and effectively eliminate any shortages. Rational an and balanced feeding is one of the necessary and effective factors providing children's health and harmharmonic development. Correct feeding significantly affects the development and formation of children's brain, intellect, central nervous system. Correct feeding in childhood and teenage periods provides the comprehensive development along with providing the daily needs of food.

Within 2013-2014 academic/years modern equipment/were provided to 370 physics, chemistry and biology-subject labs-at 240 general education establishments republic/wide, as/well-as 27 in Baku city. This action has been implemented by appropriate allocations from state budget by the order of the Ministry of Education.

Temporary Guideline has been adopted for interschool assessment at general education schools and "Teacher's formative assessment notebook" been prepared.

The Ministry of Education organized a project competition for the public initiatives support. As a result of the competition, 13 projects for "Initiatives for education policy", 5 for "Research initiatives in education", in general, 18 projects have been positively evaluated.

On One of the following successful attempts in 2013 was the organization of trainings for ischool principals and pedagogical personnel who wish to work in this position in future. The trainings in the inception phase cover general education establishments operating only in Bakucity. 5547 pedagogical personnel chave been sregistered. 547 candidates who wish to take part in the trainings Ishall be unundergonel through 3 stage competition. The first stage of competition has laready been completed. 152 152 apedagogical personnel could pass to the next stage thext stage of the competition will be completed at the end of January.

It was started to pay relevant monthly advance allocations for economy purposes to the principals of ofegeneral education schools subordinated to the Bakutcityd Education Department since December 202013. Amount of monthly advance allocations was defined as 400 manats for schools of which the number of pupils is under 1000, 500 for schools with 1000-1300 pupils and 600 for schools with over 1300 pupils. Monthly allocations will be spent by the principals for the solution of pending urgent issues of the schools.

On October 24, 2013 Mr. Ilham Aliyev, the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan, signed another docudocument considering progressive reforms in educational sphere: This document is landecree on appropriately the State Strategy for the development of education in the Republic Azerbaijan" describing the fundamental solution of issues which are underpublic concern. The State Strategy is a conceptual document towards systematized maintenance of educational reforms and high contributions to the country's development. A work group has been established at the Ministry of Education in order to draft the action plan for the implementation of State Strategy.

One of the updates in 2013 educational sphere is an announcement of key priorities of reforms to be carried out in general education schools dentification of the priorities aims to implement the key goals set forth in the State Strategy for the development of education in the Republic of Azerbaijan" and to conduct public awareness. Main objective of reform oriented events towards the solution of topic topical problems of general education system was to provide the althy and efficient educational environment at schools, improve education quality and raise the school management up to the modern requirements.

On One December 14, 2013 the Ministry of Education organized the Azerbaijanic teachers' XIV congress. Government officials, deputies, heads offirst vocational special, secondary special and high ededucation establishments, heads of docal educational entities, finfluential teachers, fintellectuals and otother concerning entities were participating in the congress where representatives of lall Azerbaijan regions take part in.

The Ministry of Education made a decision on regulation of issues regarding use of incomes from pulpublication of textbooks for the sale purposes. This decision aims to protect the textbook authors' rights, their motivation to prepare the textbooks meeting modern requirements, as well as provide the prompromotion of textbook writing. So, textbook authors will 5get 50f % of learnings from ladditional pupublication of textbooks. Other part of mentioned earnings will be spent for istimulation of textbook writing, study and use of the existing international practice in this sphere.

By Decision of the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Azerbaijan dated on December 27, 2013, the the amaximum limit of weekly workload for teachers of general education schools, gymnasium and lydyceums, vocational schools and dyceums, sports and art schools, heads of circlest at extracurricular education establishments was extended from 24 hours up to 36 hours.

This year the Ministry of Education made a new policy towards the establishment of more efficient relations with mass media. This policy enabled the Ministry to make clearer, transparent and effective relationships with media. In order to publish exact and complete information on activities of the Ministry of Education and increase the cooperation opportunities with media; this year seminars and briefings have been organized for mass media representatives; the trip to Ismayilly region been arranged. Medianwhile, certain attempts have been made towards the strengthening of activities of publishing centities subordinated to the Ministry of Education and useful collaboration with publishing entities of universities.