The Ministry remained faithful to its annual tradition on the eve of the World Azerbaijanis Solidarity Day and New Year to be with Kalbajar refugees and internally displaced families, help and give moral support to people who were displaced from their own homes as a result of Armenia's aggressive policy.

The Ministry representatives distributed holiday gifts considered for 1250 families to the families from Kalbajar settled in Goygol.

Refugees and internally displaced people expressed their gratitude for the attention and care and stated their belief that the occupied territories would be released soon as a result of the President's expedient policy.
