

---

Jeyhun Bayramov, the deputy minister of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan, Vu-Jung Kim, the representative of the Ministry of Education of the Korea Republic and Choi Suk-in, emergency and authorized ambassador of Korea to Azerbaijan participated in the opening.

Note that the study room established in the lyceum has been provided with 42 notebooks, 1 big size monitor, 1 computer for tutor, 11 tablets, 1 set of electronic interactive board, 1 laser printer, 2 digital camera, 4 monitors, 1 desk for tutor, 20 desks for pupils, 20 chairs for pupils, 2 closets, 4 notebook closets, 1 electronic stool, 4 speakers, 2 dynamic microphone, 1 set of positioning system, 41 licensed antiviruses, 41 licensed content manager device. Moreover, training on ICT use in learning is considered for 40 education staff of school.

Jeyhun Bayramov, deputy minister of Education, greeting the participants expressed his gratitude to the Korean Ministry of Education on behalf of the Ministry of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan. The deputy minister noted that establishment of educational system with advanced technologies-driven infrastructure is of importance in order to improve the quality education.

Choi Suk-in, the ambassador of Korea to Azerbaijan mentioned that the key objective of the study room is to share the Korean experience of educational informatization with Azerbaijan. Stating the collaboration in educational sphere would contribute to the strengthening existing friendly relations between two countries, the ambassador touched the importance of ICT use in learning from the standpoint of human resources building.

Vu-Jung, participating representative of the Ministry of Education of the Korea Republic, spoke about the significance of establishment of study room. He expressed his gratitude to the Ministry of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan for supporting the mutual collaboration.

Then the participants were acquainted with the presentation of upper pupils of the lyceum at ICT based room.