Duri During the visit the spress representatives saw the condition provided to educational unit, workworkshops, dstudios and classrooms. The participating representatives of 5 cTV rehannels, Twnews agagencies and 2 newspapers prepared TV reports and plots and interviewed the teachers and publis. Presentatives have been provided with the information regarding rearning and teaching condition, educational staff and learners of educational establishment.

Noted that the Baku Vocational School #5 has been re-constructed and given to use in 2012 by ininitiative and support of the Heydar Aliyev Foundation. Wide logistics base has been provided in the school, the only first vocational special educational institution in the Caucasus preparing skilled people for broadcasting media.

Learners are prepared towards 8 professions (video operator, film – editor, sound technician, light technician, decorator, costume-designer, make-up specialist, computer training and service technician) meeting modern requirements at the vocational school where 300 pupils study. Production classes are held to workshops and studios supplied with advanced equipments as well-as sound recording; filmedications decorator, make-up, costume designer rooms. Not accidentally that graduators of the Baku Vocational School #5 are successfully operate in television, film and theatre fields.