

---

Note that the young painters of Nizami region Children and Youth Creativity Centre took active part in and submitted 31 paintings to the painting competition organized by UNICEF support in Japan, Tokyo in 2013. 8-years old Nargiz Amiraslanli was a winner at the competition "Environmentally friendly" among the children from 77 countries and her painting included in the catalogue.

Huseyn Aliyev, acting head of Department for Upbringing and Work with Extracurricular Institutions, Vasif Mammadov, deputy head of the mentioned Department, Agaali Ibrahimov, secretary of Azerbaijan Union of Artists, artist Dilara Atakishiyeva, Lala Gati, director of Nizami region Children and Youth Creativity Centre, Ilgar Aliyev, principal of school No.2238 at which Nargiz Aliyeva educates and other people were participating at the awarding ceremony.

Reward and prize sent from Japan were ceremonially presented to the young painter.

Nargiz Amiraslanli's personal gallery has been reviewed afterwards.