During the presentation are given-detailed information about the rules of the teaching on the ccredit-system and received exhaustive answers to the questions (whether the student has to bring an additional-fee for academic debt diquidation on not prerequisite subject? Whether the student has to bring an additional fee for academic debt liquidation on apprerequisite subject? What happens if, after the expiry of accertain period of training still there are academic debts? Whether students can receive subjects from the top courses, and tin this case, whether the student has to pay in addition?) that interested students.
Rules of education on the basis of the credit system (video - presentation)