
In accordance with the "Regulations on the Evaluation of Textbooks", approved by the decree No. 252 of the Minister of Education of the Azerbaijan Republic from February 27, 2014, the statements, wishing to participate in competition for the selection of the members of Council on the Textbook Evaluation created with a view to the effective organization of the process of evaluation and examination of school textbooks, will be accepted on March 3-18, 2014.

The competition purpose, according to requirements "The state Strategy on a development of education in the Azerbaijan Republic", consists in increase of efficiency of reforms which will be carried out in the content of education and in ensuring transparency of an assessment and examination of the textbooks prepared for comprehensive schools. Competition is important and from the point of view of involvement of the qualified experts in the field of psychology, design of curricula and textbooks, as well as design professionals, deep insight into modern, innovative teaching methods and technologies in the process of improving the quality of textbooks.

The persons having the higher education in the field of teaching of languages, primary education, literature, mathematics informatics, natural study, the public and social disciplines, not less than 5 years having a pedagogical experience which were deeply studying modern educational programs and directly participating in their application can participate in competition. For specialists in the field of education content - curriculum, age psychology, physiology, publishing and design of textbooks are not subject to the restrictions on the pedagogical experience.

Persons wishing to take part in the competition, can get acquainted with the "Regulations on the Evaluation of textbooks" on the web-site of the Ministry of Education: (<http://www.edu.gov.az/view.php?lang=az&menu=162&id=8043>).

The persons, wishing to take part in competition, can send applications and information on (CV) in an electronic form to e-mail address: z.rzayeva@edu.gov.az (contact numbers (012) 496-34-97, (012) 489-99-86)