It serileserves the opurposes to conformity of material-technical base of the initial professional educational institutions operating in corresponding branch in accordance with momodern requirements, pimpiroying the effectiveness to the training on preparation of experts.

It should be noted, that since independence, our country has launched ansimilar initiative. These cars for manufacture Europe provided for training are equipped by the engine 1600 cub/cm and 5- -asstep mechanical transmission. Cars both from the point of view of management, and from the point of view of safety meet the European standards.

AcAcquisition of cars for initial professionally dechnical educational institutions/iwill create positive conditions for enhancing the effectiveness of the training.