

---

Having greeted participants of the summit, Minister of Education has in detail informed attendees on an education system about the planned objectives and about the main tasks of spent reforms. Having emphasized, that the education system of the country passes the way of progress based on traditions, generated during long years, minister has noted continuous character of the reforms appropriating modern requirements. He has noted, that modern education reforms are connected not only with technologies or with a content, but also cover all directions, including questions of progress of human resources.

In opinion of minister, "The State Strategy for the development of education in the Republic of Azerbaijan" covers the basic directions of spent reforms, a professional training in view of modern requirements, governance, an infrastructure, financing and perfection of other areas. The minister has expressed confidence, that paces of reform in education area depend on readiness of a society for variations.

Stressing the importance of cooperation between business and education, the minister noted that the review of the education system in accordance with the goals and objectives of the national economy is one of the important conditions. "Our goal is to provide labour market with high-quality personnel. We, in accordance with the realities of Azerbaijan, using best practices and taking into account that sustainable economic development requires a solid foundation based on human resources."

The Minister of Education also spoke about priorities of progress of the initial vocational education & training which is playing a major part, from the point of view of satisfaction of demand of economy in qualified personnel. The great value has achievement of progress of initial vocational training in Azerbaijan. "Now the economy of Azerbaijan sharply requires the staff with vocational and technical education. For increase of a level of initial vocational training we plan use of experience of a number of countries."

The Minister has emphasized the importance of cooperation in area of higher education with the prestigious universities which are being abroad. "As a good example, you can highlight the lessons learned in this regard, the experience of university ADA and their cooperation with prestigious institutions of higher education."

Then the minister has answered questions of participants of the summit, has stated the position on their interesting questions.