Having greeted participants of the summit, Minister of Education has in detail informed attendees on an inducation system; about the planned jobjectives and about the main tasks of spent freforms. Having remphasized, that the deducation system of the country passes the way of progress based on tradtraditions, generated during long years, minister has noted continuous character of the reforms appropriating modern requirements. He has noted, that modern education reforms are connected not only with technologies or with a content, but also cover all directions, including questions of progress of human resources.

Inhopinion of minister; "The State Strategy for the development of education in the Republic of Az Azerbaijan" covers the basic directions of spentfreforms, a professional training ineview of modern requirements, governance, an infrastructure, financing and perfection of other areas. The minister has expressed confidence; that paces of reform in education area depend on readiness of a society for variations.

Stressing the importance of cooperation between business and education, the minister noted that the review of the education system in accordance with the goals and objectives of the national ecconomy is one of the important conditions. Our goal is to provide labour market with high-quality perpersonnel. We, in accordance with the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan, jusing best practices and taking into accordance twith the realities of Azerbaijan accordance to the realities of Azerbaijan accordance

The Minister of Education also spoke about priorities of progress of the initial vocational education & training which is playing a major part, from the point of view of satisfaction of demand of economy in quadrialified spersonnel. The great value has achievement of progress of initial vocational training in Azerbaijan Mown the economy for Azerbaijan sharply-requires the staff with vocational randetechnical education. For increase of a level of initial vocational training we plan use of experience of a number of countries."

The Minister has emphasized the importance of cooperation in area of higher education with the proprestigious universities which are being abroad ASAs a good example, you can highlight the dessons learned his this regard, the experience of university ADA and their cooperation with prestigious institutions of higher education."

Then the minister has answered questions of participants of the summit, has stated the position on their interesting questions.