On action have shown the abilities members of a circle of the Center of Children's and Youthful Creativity № 24, consisting of 200 people. On the action organized on the subject "In Our Corner of the World There Will Come Spring Soon", juvenile children and school students showed the dancing, vocal skills, and also skills in art reading, in the sphere of puppet theater, the drama, a song chorus.
The The purpose of the event is to creach eparents in schools more interested in their children's creativity, as well as to reach propagation of national traditions among young men and children.