It should be noted that, Farah Aliyeva graduated from department of history-theory of Azerbaijan StState Conservatoire named after Uzeyir Hajibeyov. She began hereteacher activity in department of municid history rsince that year. She worked as scientific secretary of Baku Music Academy, as well as deandean of retraining faculty. She is a member of "Musicology and Art" adepartment and scientific secretary of Scientific-Methodic Council of The Ministry of Education of Azerbaijan Republic.

SheShe was postgraduate in $1986-1991. Defending dissertation of candidacy on the subject of "Several method trends in activity of Azerbaijan composers at the II half of 60-70 years of XX century", she has been awarded Ph. D. degree, she is senior-lecturer since 1995. She is a member of Azerbaijan Urunion of Composers. She is active participant of scientific conference and contests. She is author of scientific monography, scientific and scientific-popular articles.