

---

Event is dedicated to June 1- International Children's Day.

Painting works of circle members with age 5-18 of "Rəsm" studio, have been demonstrated in exhibition. There are children who need special care among circle members. Painting works have been drawn on the topics like compositions, nature paintings, underwater environment, the illustrations to the tales and etc in national method. Paintings drawn in the genres like landscapes, miniature, graphics, abstract, portrait and batik, have been prepared with watercolor, gouache, pastel, ink, acrylic.

Lala Gati, director of Creative Center opened exhibition with introduction word and stated his gratitude to administration of Modern Art Museum due to support in organization of event at higher level. Visitors wished young artists new creative achievements.

Members of "Çiçəyim" child theater studio of center demonstrated wear collection of Narmin Abdullayeva in the event. Young artists introduced the visitors painting works in exhibition and responded their several questions.