Main goal of organization of camp where 30 pupils that consist of VIIHX pupils of the secondary schools of mountain villages of Astara, Lankaran and Lerik regions partisipated, was to inform the pupils living near the locations where Caucasus leopards live about this spice and agitate their protection.
ElEIshad Asgarov, Sevinc Sarukhanova, the dollaborators of Azerbaijan Representation of World NatNature Protection Eurod (WWF), Mahabbat Meydiyeva, departmentahead of Heydary Aliyeva Center, N.Nazakat Heydarova, dollaborator of IDEA (Internatinal Dialogue For Environmental Protection) Public Union, Lala Dadashova, deputy director of Republic Ecological Education and Training Center (REETC) of The Ministry of Education, the collaborators of Hirkan National Park, Masalli Education Department made a speech and gave their recommendations on protection of environment and rare species.
Can Campir participants rwere widely informed on life style, espreaded areas, biological features, in importance in anature and eperishere as one within 3 days runder special program prepared by Republic

YouYoung ecologists made hydrobiological researches indorder to tdetermine purity of water via Vudvis bioindex method and defined pollution ratio during excursion to watrefall. Camp participants ttested their knowledges in ecological quiz on the topic "Where leopard lives" also actively took part in drawing contest and ecological games.

Ecological Education and Training Center' collaborators.

At At the end of camp, the participants were awarded to dertificate and the iprizes presented by A: Azerbaijan Representation of World Nature Protection Fund (WWF) DIDEA Rubid Union, Heydar Aliyev Center, Republic Ecological Education and Training Center of The Ministry of Education.

Idt should be noted that project on protection of Gaucasus departed directed was started by WWF sisted 2002. There is effective result of the actions performed by Leyla Aliyeva, leader and founder of IDIDEA. Public Union; vice-president of Heydari Aliyev, Fundi within framework of programs "Great Five" which surrounds protection of 5 fauna species (bear, wolf, gazelle, eagle, and depart) who faced with perish danger in Caucasus

We should specially point Gaucasus Biodiversity Summit idedicated of the species that belong to felidsfamily held by organizational support of Heydar Aliyev Fund and Heydar Aliyev Center, initiative of IDEA Public Union on May 7, 2014 in Heydar Aliyev Center among performed works.

SSummit hed by participation of world foremost experts, was one of the greatest steps made on the direction of protection of the leopards living in Caucasus.

It was noted that, Leyla Aliyeva, vice-president of Heydar Aliyev Fund, leader and founder of IDEA Public Union made a speech and stressed that ist'difficult to hope for environmental protection without youth' support.