

---

17917962 applications were presented to 72975 vacancies in secondary and primary vocational educational establishments within 15 days.

Number of applicants who selected the specialties on primary education (4996), english language (2578), Azerbaijan language and literature (2190), mathematics (1477), history (1156) and informatics (1113) teachers. According to primary analyze, vacant positions in Baku city mostly were selected more than the others. So, more than 1200 applications were recorded to vacancy of english language teacher, but more than 800 applications to vacancy of primary education teacher in Baku city.

Examination groups will be formed on July 18, 2014 after completion of process of appeals' approval on July 17, 2014.

Second phase of teachers' recruitment in the secondary schools and vocational lyceums in 2014-2015 academic years- test examinations will start on July 21 and will last for 1 week. Location and date of test examination will be sent to personal pages of each contest' participants.

Test examinations will be held in main and 2nd corpus of Azerbaijan State Economic University. Examination will be observed by video.

Interviews will be organized for the candidates who obtained recruitment right in vacant position selected according to result of test examination from July 30, 2014 and they will be sent detailed information in their personal pages. Interview program will be placed on "Recruitment of the teachers" page of website of The Ministry of Education.