

---

The goal of training is to educate the directors who appropriated modern management knowledge and ability for primary vocational education institution, who are familiar with information technologies, who can contribute in social and education development of country and improve their skills.

Firudin Gurbanov, deputy minister of education who made a speech in the event held on the occasion of commencement of "Leadership and management" training informed about the reforms implemented of the sphere of social-economic in Azerbaijan. Reminding special importance given to non-oil sector, stated that role of vocational education is very important in the development of this sphere. F. Gurbanov pointed, that, there is a great place to vocational education in "State Strategy on Development of Education in the Azerbaijan Republic". The deputy minister stressed his hope for contribution of this training in the development of vocational education.

Henning Tvesten, the representative of "GIZ" (Germany International Cooperation Society) to our country, Anar Mammadov, the expert of "Allianz Consult" LLC informed about training in detailed. The participants of "Leadership and management" training conducted for primary vocational education institutions and personnel who have intention to function at this post, have been determined through contest by The Ministry of Education, "Allianz Consult" LLC and GIZ" Germany International Cooperation Society. The trainings will surround primary vocational education institutions functioning in Baku for initial phase. The trainings will be managed by two groups that consist of 1 international expert and 1 local expert. The participants will take part in the examination organized by The Ministry of Education after the trainings that will last for 3 months. "The certificate of success" will be presented to the persons who obtain satisfactory result in the examinations. The certain motivations will be applied for increase of efficiency in the works of the persons functioning as an director of primary vocational education institution and who obtained "The certificate of success". Now, the persons who don't work as an director, will be recorded as reserve to be appointed in the vacant positions on the posts of director.