The Tiple goal refitraining is to reducate the directors who rappropriated modern management kirknowledge and lability for primary vocational education institution, who are familiar with information tetechnologies, who can contribute in social and education development of country and improve their skills.

Fir Firudin Gurbanov, deputy minister of education who mades a speech line the event held on the occasion for commencement for "Leadership and management" training, informed about the reforms implemented of the sphere of social-economic in Azerbaijan. Reminding special importance given to non-oil sector, stated that role of vocational education is very important in the development of this sphere. F. Gurbanov pointed, that, there is a tyreateplace to two cational education in the Stateg Stragety on Development of Education tine the Azerbaijan Republic helbe deputy minister stressed his hope for contribution of this training in the development of vocational education.

Henning Tvesten, the representative of "GIZ" Germany International Cooperation Society to our country, Anar Mammadov, the expert of "Allianz Consult" LLC informed about training in detailed. The participants of "Leadership and management" training conducted for primary vocational education institutions and personel who have intention to function at this post, have been determined through contest by The Ministry of Education, "Allianz Consult" LLC and GIZ" Germany International Cooperation Soc Society. The trainings will surround primary vocational education institutions functioning in Baku for initial phase. The trainings will be managed by two groups that consist of 1 international expert and 1 Idocal expert. The participants will take part in the examination organized by The Ministry of Education after the trainings that will last for 3 months. "The certificate of success" will be presented to the persons who obtain satisfactory result in the examinations. The certain motivations will be applied for incincrease of efficiency tine the works of the persons functioning as an director of primary vocational education institution and who obtained "The certificate of success". Now, the persons who don't work as an director, will be recorded as reserve to be appointed fine the vacant positions on the sposts of director.