The issue on development of France-Azerbaijan relations has been delivered to the attention in the meeting with Mrs. Manuel Frank, the president of institute, the issues like creation of the relations between institute and Heydar Aliyev Fund lately, increase of interest to teaching of Azerbaijan language in the The National Institute of France for Eastern Languages ad Civilizations, has ben appreciated, also agreement has been made on the direction of continuation of colloboration on the sphere of education. Also Also vits was specially estressed that relevant supports will be made by The Ministry of Education of Azerbaijan Republication was pointed that teaching of Azerbaijan language in the developed country as France, has a great importance.

M. Frank, the president of The National Institute of France for Eastern Languages ad Civilizations stated that, number of students who want to learn Azerbaijan language grows lately, also existence of special interest to Azerbaijan language in the education institution led by her. She pointed that, number of the hours allocated to teaching of Azerbaijan language compared to the previous years grows, in this temtempo well wilk take into account bachelors then master and doctoral programs funder teaching of Azerbaijan language and culture within the next time.

Mikayild Jabbarov tstated that the relations among our countries develop comprehensively, collaboration has special importance on the sphere of education, also increase of interest to Azerbaijan language in France and its teaching is very joyful and estimable.

The minister of education met the students of group where Azerbaijan language is taught. Aygun Eyyubova, doctor of sciences who teach Azerbaijan language, reminded that Mehriban Aliyeva, The First Lady of Azerbaijan, The President of Heydar Aliyev Fund visited institute on november, 2008 and was closely acquainted with teaching of Azerbaijan language. He stated that, contract related to teaching of Azerbaijan language has been signed between institute and Heydar Aliyev Fund.

AyAytan Babaliyeva, to there teacher for institute talked about willingly learning for our language by didifferent nations' expresentatives in the group where Azerbaijan language is taught, organization for contents among the students acollaboration between The National Institute of Erance for Eastern Languages and Civilizations and Azerbaijan's higher education institutions.

Informing the students about Azerbaijan, Mikayil Jabbarov, the minister of education talked about how our country became a leader state in South Caucasus, development of our country, also stated his satisfaction from acquaintance with the students who learn Azerbaijan language.

Making a speech in Azerbaijan language, several students dold about their visits in our country, also talked about their main goals to learn this language.

Elcl Elchim Amirbayove the lambassador /ofeAzerbaijan Ito: France lambassadors Paskal Monyedand institute's officials took part in the meetings.