

---

Exchange of opinion around the issues on enlargement of application of multimedia means in the education system and strengthening of the relations on different phases of education has been performed in the meetings. Also, actions envisaged on the direction of development of education qualities and increase of usage efficiency from Information Communication Technologies in the teaching process.

It was pointed that realization of joint projects together with "Microsoft", "CISCO" and "Intel" corporations on the different directions of education, will increase the opportunities for creation of infrastructure in accordance with ICT-based training technologies in the education institutions. According to the requirements of modern time, opinions on importance of benefiting the opportunities of e-teaching resources and web technologies have been sounded, existence of wide perspectives for collaboration's development has been stressed in the teaching process.