Conference hosted by Lithuania Council of Universities and Vilnus Applied Sciences University, has been dedicated to the topic "How to ensure quality in the higher education".

AfAfgan Abdullayev, senior consultant for sector for Licensing and Accreditation for himstry for EdEducation, and a speech AfAbout trapsperancy and reports issues in the provision of quality in the event.

More than 230 representatives who represented 95 universities and educational organizations of Europe and USA, took part in the conference.

Conference's participants discussed methods and mechanisms of quality assurance in the higher education. Exchange of opinion has been made around the issues like quality and quality assurance, quality quality assurance and quality culture. European standards in the quality assurance quality in the double education programs, globalization and quality assurance, quality collaboration with the instinstitutions (employers), essence of quality assurance time the professional higher education time the student-oriented training.

ArAndreas Orfanides, president of European Higher Education Institutions Association, Rimantas Valvaitkus, edeputy iminister of education and science of Lithuania, i Gintautas Brajunas, rector of Vilnus Applied Sciences University, Mario Kelo, director of European Higher Education Quality Assurance Association (EHEQA), Klara Engels- Pereny, higher education expert of European Council made a speech in the conference.

Alalso, presentation of inquiry book named if Internal Quality Assurance in the Higher Education" was held in the conference Luchien Bollaert, author of book, member of Management Group (ECA) of European Accreditation Consortium and Netherlands Accreditation Community, informed about book.